Why choose this machine?

This automated sub arc welding column and boom features some of the most innovative and modern equipment in the Lincoln Electric range. Fitted to a British-made, over-engineered Key Plant welding column.

The PowerWave power source, Powerfeed 10A control and Powerfeed 10S dual head are advanced submerged arc welding solutions from Lincoln. Featuring TwinArc and Narrow Gap technology.

Investing in this machine, you can experience faster welding speeds, yield higher quality welds, and improve efficiency using single or multi arc operations.

Previously owned by TWI (The Welding Institute), get this "as new" automated sub arc welding solution at a fraction of the cost of new. Having been maintained and serviced regularly to a high standard.

Who is this machine for?

Professional industrial fabrication companies looking to upgrade their current automated submerged arc welding set up. If you want a premium machine in "As New" condition that's been maintained to high standards, this system is for you.

Industries include:

- Shipbuilding
- Rail fabrication
- Structural steel
- Heavy equipment
- Power generation
